Fort Douglas has an air of desolation about it these days. The removal of the Twelfth infantry boys made quite a breach in the ranks and there is a feeling of real sadness in the post. Especially is this true in the case of the wives of the soldiers. Some of them refuse to be comforted.

OLD SOLDIER VICTIM

When Uncle Sam spends that million or more on the grounds and buildings at Fort Douglas it is said that this will be one of the finest army posts in the country. It certainly will be one of the best located ones and will keep watch over a real live town.

No. Fort Douglas is not maintained and garrisoned by the Government to keep the Gentiles and Mormons of Sait Lake City from mixing their muscle. It is merely here as a guarantee of good faith.

An evening newspaper takes up a quantity of supposedly valuable space to assure the public that the subpoenas for prominent church men to appear at Washington to testify in the Smoot case are not in the nature of arrests. Of course not, but that newspaper was not as considerate of the possible misunderstanding of a similar situation a few weeks ago when a subpoena was sent hore for service on the publisher of a contemporary notifying him that he was desired as a witness in another case in which the Government was interested. In the former case the newspaper showed its spleen, in this last its personal interests. The reasons impelling action in each meident wore never undisguised, however. action in each incident

Some one has suggested that if the Russians find that they cannot whip the Japs in a square-toed fight that they might prepare a large quantity of chop suev. toll the almond-eyed fellows up into the interior and freeze them to death.

Quite a number of citizens of Salt Lake county have gone on record in the case of Frank Rose as being so prejudiced against the prisoner that even in face of the evidence favorable to him that an "impartial verdict" could not be rendered. What a commentary, this, on man's nature! It seems impossible that an intelligent citizen would be willing to state that he is so steeped in prejudice.

Significance, it is said, attaches to the fact that the Twelfth infantry was detailed to the Philippines out of the regular order. A regiment stationed in Kentucky is claimed to have been the first in the regular order and there are some who take this as meaning that it is the desire of the War devartment to have solders moving to the East as soon as possible, in fear that there may be some complications that may call for United States troops.

If the "inspector of Pests" should run out of a job what would be the matter with directing his attention to the "Ter-rible Swede?"

Since a judge has decided that the rail-roads are not liable for damages for kill-ing or maining a man who rides on a pass passenger traffic promises to show a dis-tinct falling off. It is much more profit-able to remain at home than to chance an accident without hope of laying down on the company for the rest of one's life.

The Coroner's verdict in the Lucin cut-off disaster is paradoxical. The accident might have been avoided, it says, but no blame is attached to any one! O, we see!

The cloud of smoke that sweeps over the city from the smelters at Murray is a greater nuisance to Sait Lake than all of the smoking stacks in town. Mayor Morris might confer with his neighbor and see if something cannot be done. The city had better purchase the smoke-consuming apparatus and present it to the smelter people. The investment would be worth many times its cost.

It has been intimated that Councilman Davis left town to avoid another assault by the Herald's cartoonist. Three such stabs as that of Thursday would probably be fatal.

Real estate brokers have resolved that they want to be included in the list of those businesses that are obliged to pay a license. Is this patriotism, public pride, sympathy for the ordinary taxpayer or an avidence that real estate is on the boom?

Mayor Morris need not worry about the street cars jumping the tracks and running into the telephone and trolley poles when there are so many saloons convenient. Over at Kansas City it is said that a car never leaves the track that it does not head for a "booze joint". And there is no evidence at hond to show that the Sait Lake cars are better disposed than those of the Missouri town.

OF VANDALISM

Vandalism as well as larceny is charged against the persons who broke into the little candy stand of E. S. Gray on South Temple street, near the old Deseret News building. Candy, gum and fruit to the value of $30 was carried away and the remainder of the stock was scattered recknessly about on the sidewalk and in the gutter. The offenders have not been apprehended, although the officers are unusually anxious to convict them because of the mailies shown. Mr Gray, the proprietor of the stand, is a veteran of the Clyll war, and depends upon his little business for a living
